

Intern

Linear is a prime broker and hedge fund incubator, based in London and Hamburg. We see the new emerging and start-up businesses differently to the more mainstream prime brokers. Linear's integrated platform solution brings together all the skills, expertise, and solutions that hedge funds need in one place.

We have an exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic individual to join the business at the ground level to gain practical experience in Sales/Operations. The intern role will be based in our London office supporting our Sales/middle office team. This internship is for 6 months.

Responsibilities:

The intern will be responsible for the following :

- Support the sales team with expanding the customer base and underlying revenues
- Analysing and assessing customer portfolios in terms of execution and clearing solutions, settlement and custody, cross margining and financing, risk management. It also includes account structuring and pricing, defining technology needs and ensuring clients are serviced to high levels at all times.
- Effectively communicate propositions through pricing proposals and presentations.
- The role involves working closely with all areas/departments within Linear Investments and cross selling all Linear's products and services.
- Participation at industry events and conferences on an ad hoc basis
- Attending and presenting at regular sales meetings.
- Responsibility for managing, controlling, preparing, and escalating risk within the scope of your position.
- Act with Integrity and due skill, care and diligence in carrying out your duties. Your actions should always be able to satisfy a high level of scrutiny.
- Observe proper standards of market conduct. Responsibility to ensure that you take all reasonable steps to be fully aware of and understand and comply with all regulatory requirements from all regulatory bodies that are applicable to your business and clients.
- Operational monitoring of financial securities, derivatives transactions and FX transactions from execution to settlement.
- Communication with Internal Trading and Sales Desks
- Direct contact with international Clients and Counterparties
- Involved in projects as required
- Carrying out various ad hoc quantitative projects as required by the day to day operations of the team
